3213 RESTORATIVE NURSING CARE PROGRAM

3213.2 Each nursing employee shall provide restorative nursing in his or her daily care of residents, which shall include the following:

(d) Encouraging residents to be independent in activities of daily living by teaching and explaining the importance of self-care, ensuring and assisting with transfer and ambulating activities, by allowing sufficient time for task completion by the residents, and by encouraging and honoring resident’s choices;

3230 RESIDENT ACTIVITIES

3230.4 Each facility shall provide the following:

(d) Opportunity for interested family members and friends of residents to participate in facility activities that are specifically designed to include interested family members and friends;

(e) Opportunity to participate in community activities

3246. RESIDENT BEDROOMS

3246.1 Each resident bedroom shall be designed and equipped for providing adequate nursing care, comfort, and privacy of residents

...3246.5 If the room is not for single occupancy, each bed shall have flameproof ceiling suspended curtains which extend around each bed in order to provide the resident total visual privacy, in combination with adjacent walls and curtains.